Dear Friends and Family,

Well, we've had a boring year. Not much to tell. No big family vacations. No weddings. No grandkids. No promotions. No major illnesses. Didn't meet any famous people. No root canals. Did not win the lottery. Not much weight loss. Hurricane Sandy passed us by. Sigh. All the shingles are still on our roof.

Oh wait! We did paint our family room. We replanted the raspberries. Trevor mowed the lawn most every week. Janet got some new spatulas. Calvin had his teeth cleaned. Hmmmm . . . what else?

Stan has his same job. Ryan moved back in with us. Brooke and her husband Scott bought a house about 2 miles away. Chelsea graduated from USU in music education and is still married to Jeffrey. Trevor played the tenor drums in the high school marching band. Ta Da!

Please send us a holiday letter with something exciting in it. We could really use the lift!

We love and miss you all.

David Calvin, Janet, Stan, Ryan, Brooke & Scott, Chelsea & Jeffrey, and Trevor
